In order to join the sessions click on the link below.

(Meeting ID: 863 2256 2544)

You will be redirected to the Zoom webpage and asked to access the app (if you haven't installed the app yet, you will be asked to do so; just follow the instructions).

While not necessary, we encourage you to 'join with computer camera' and to keep the camera active during the session so that we can better get to know each other. You can switch the camera or the microphone on/off at any time by clicking on the relevant icon. If possible, choose to show your name during the session.

If you are late, please join the session anyway and we will let you in as soon as possible. We ask you to kindly join with no microphone in order not to disrupt the session.

If you are not able to make it to a session, please let us know as soon as possible.

During the sessions

In order to keep the sessions as interactive and pleasant as possible, we want to avoid confusing and annoying sound disturbances. We therefore ask you to activate your microphone only when you want to talk. Please keep it switched off while others are speaking. You can ask questions at any time by clicking on the 'Raise hand' button at the bottom of the Zoom window and you will be invited to intervene.

If you experience any technical issues during the session, please use the chat to ask for help.

Exercises

You will be asked to do some exercises. After you have done the recording, download them on your computer and send them to training@spectacle.co.uk as soon as you can using wetansfer. We will give advice on how to do so in the session. Make sure to add your name, the name of the exercise and the name of your course in the accompanying message.

Editing

We will be running the editing sessions using Lightworks that can be downloaded free. It is not necessary to have it installed on your computer and the workflow delivered during the course can easily be adapted to other editing software. However, if you plan on using it for practice or to edit your videos after the course, you can download it before the course starts.
